

LEPC Updates

April 14, 2010

LEPC - Amy Manney, Deputy Director, OES & Shane Ross, Chief Deputy, Sheriff's Office:

1. Shane announced he was retiring as of May 1st creating the need to fill his role as Chair of LEPC. Following brief discussion, committee approved Amy Manney for that role.
2. Shane distributed a brochure "How to Respond to Chemical Emergencies" noting it will also be posted on the LEPC website. Amy added SEMO liked the brochure so much that it will be added to their website. A copy of the brochure is on file with the minutes.
3. Amy reported on the Tier 2 Hazardous Materials Report noting there were a few new chemicals (Butane, Copper and Zinc) this year which have been reported to appropriate agencies including the hospital. A copy of the report is on file with the minutes.
